Discussion – Commissioner Crago explained that this is for the Absarokee Rural Special Improvements District and there will be several of these over the next year as the Absarokee Sewer project has officially begun. This is a draw on the 4.1-million-dollar loan. Motion passed unanimously

PUBLIC COMMENTS ON COUNTY BUSINESS – Emily Schabacher asked if the meetings for the fairgrounds had ever been rescheduled. Commissioner Crago answered that the meetings have not been rescheduled yet. GCCM just came on board last week and that was their first meeting. When the meeting was cancelled the decision was made to introduce the entire team together and with the spike in the COVID cases it is being decided how to conduct the meetings either using virtual meetings or live meetings with small groups. Right now, the Commission is looking at making small project boards and displaying them at high traffic public locations throughout the county. The meeting has not been rescheduled yet and a date has not been set yet because the board is still trying to figure out the dynamics.

The Commission is hoping the meetings when scheduled will be well attended. The Commission wants the public to have the opportunity to go over the plans and to voice their opinions.

With no further comments hear the meeting was adjourned at 9:05 a.m.
